

Octavius

Learning and development partnership (OLDP)

OLDP Community Interest Company

Who are we? In brief

Focusing on neighbourhood and tenancy sustainability, project management and waste prevention. Delivering social studies for small areas (SOA's), training and vocational qualifications to break through barriers to attainment and change behaviours.

OLDP is a limited partnership registered with companies house no LP16085.

OLDP community interest company is registered with companies house no 9996574

UK registered training provider no 10039329, approved qualification centre for NOCN no 3000206 registered with Environment agency as a higher tier waste carrier and dealer no CB/KE5444TH

Our principles are those of a 'social enterprise' and not for profit. That is to say 'a business with primarily social objectives where any surpluses are reinvested in the business and the communities we serve.'